

Are you Employed and looking to progress your Maths skills?

Does the fear of Maths hold you back?

Are you tired of struggling with budget management amidst rising living costs?

Don't let numbers limit your potential. Gain Confidence, boost opportunities and excel in everyday work & life.

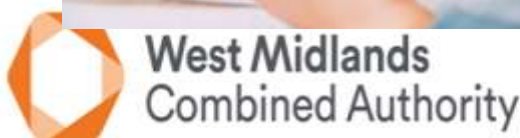

Enrol on our courses TODAY!

Course	Details
Beat the Cost-of-living Crises. The rising cost of living being the most common reason for debt. This course will focus on some of the main household expenditure (including energy bills, TV, phone and broadband packages, food bills and transport costs and how you can use numeracy skills and knowledge to manage the situation. Course Code: - Q00013949	Start date: 04/03/2024. End date: 18/03/2024. Day: Monday Timings: 2:15 – 4:15 Total sessions: 5
Crafty Calculations You will learn how maths can be used and applied in an imaginative way whilst learning valuable number skills along the way. Focusing on shape, angles, tessellations, symmetry, and number sequences, Crafty Calculations will foster learners to embrace the relationships between numeracy and creativity. Course Code: - Q00013950	Start date: 05/03/2024. End date: 19/03/2024. Timings: 4:00 – 6:00 Day: Tuesday Total sessions: 5

To qualify for a free the course, you will need to bring the evidence.

- Proof of id (e.g. Passport, driving licence, residence card, birth certificate)
- Proof of Residency Status in the UK (e.g. Passport, driving licence, residence card)
- Proof of your address (e.g. driving licence, an official letter dated in the last 3 months with your name on it)
- Proof of low wage (You must be employed and earning less than £30,000 to be eligible)
- Your National Insurance Number

If you would like more information, please contact Nadia at Nsmitheman@wea.ac.uk or on 07827553111. You can enrol online by visiting our website and entering the above course codes at www.wea.org.uk

The WEA is a charity registered in England and Wales (no. 1112775) and in Scotland (no. SC039239).

Maths Courses 2024